

Internal User Interaction with SFS - Rename File

Encrypt File Name

This state represents encryption of the file name within the program that is then stored in the SFS Database, this state does not imply file name encryption in SFS, it represents file name encryption within the program